

Analysing Sentences

Decision tree to identify simple, compound and complex sentences

Now analyse:

The compound sentence is two or more simple sentences of equal value joined by the conjunction and.

The complex sentence is two or more simple sentences of unequal value joined by the conjunction because. 'because they were delicious' depends on the main sentence 'We ate the apples' for its meaning.